Our aim is to provide the broadest and most appropriate cover possible for you. The headings in bold refer to the section of our policy booklet to which the features or exclusions are applicable

Step 2: Cover Unless specifically excluded in the policy, we cover all your possessions for 'all risks' wherever you are in the world. We have no limiting alarm clauses and no under-insurance penalties	The only exception is Annual Travel Cover , which is perils based, where the policy specifically declares what is included
Step 3: Claims In the event of a claim you have the option of a cash settlement with no penalty, or, you can nominate your own suppliers for replacement and your own craftsmen for repair	Under House, Contents and Valuable Articles Cover we will usually ask you to pay a 'deductible' as stated in your policy schedule. There is no deductible for total claims over £10,000 (except subsidence, heave or landslide)
House Cover - accidental damage or loss automatically covered

Here the basis of cover will be replacement cost
